ANNOUNCEMENTS

BIG DOUBLE BILL AT THE DAVIS Matinee at 2 p. m .- Mary Pickford in The Pride of The Clan-Triangle Feature, The Weaker Sex, and Enlarged Orchestra of 10 Pieces.

In her newest Artcraft picture, The Pride o fthe Clan, now being shown at the Davis theatre, Mary Pickford has the novelty of having her brother-inthe novelty of having her brother-inlaw as a stage lover. In other words, the popular Matt Moore, brother of the equally popular Owen Moore, the husband of Mary Pickford, has this part to play. The story is Scotch and notwithstanding the fact that he is Irish—and proud of it—Mr. Moore makes in the picture, just the lad to win the heart of a bonny lassic. For all that, Mary Pickford is Irish, too,
but she is a wonderfully charming
Scotch lass in The Pride of the Clan and in kilts she never presented a and in kilts she never presented a

The other feature on this bill is The The other feature on this bill is The Weaker Sex, a five-part production, with an all star cast. It is a Triangle drama dealing with the big modern question "Is a wife's place in the home?" Dorothy Dalton has the role of a successful woman lawyer who marries a still more successful lawyer of the sterner sex and is forced to atandon her law practice after marriage. Her husband will not even allow her to help him, until her keenlow her to help him, until her keen-ness and woman's intuition acquit his own son, charged with murder and own son, charged with murder and condemned by circumstantial evidence. Charles Ray is seen as the son and Louise Glaum has the part of a woman of evil ways, with whom the boy is infatuated and with whose murder he is charged. The courtroom scenes are among the most realistic ever shown on the screen.

Special music for both pictures is played by an enlarged orchestra of 10 pieces and the music is a big feature of the performance.

Don't forget, matinee at 2 p. today. Very Good Eddie tenight.

Louise Huff in The Reward of Patience, Five-part Paramount Production Feature for Today and Saturday.

Dainty Louise Huff, who was last seen on the screen in Destiny's Toy, plays a little Quaker girl in the forthcoming Paramount picture, The Re-ward of Patience, which is the feature at the Breed theatre for today and

The story tells of the love affairs of The story tells of the love affairs of a little Quaker girl, Patience, whose father has chosen a youth of the village as a husband for her. But the man's backwardness has prevented his even proposing to her when the arrival of a young engineer. Robert Penfield, diverts her interest. She falls in love with Penfield but he is engaged and, though attracted to Patience, does not make love to the girl. The sudden death of her father leaves Patience penniless and Penfield has his mother employ her as a social secretary. The girl is heart-broken when she learns that Penfield is engaged to a society girl whom she religious to be totally unworthy of him. when she learns that Penlieid is changed to a society girl whom she regalizes to be totally unworthy of him. The wedding day is a terrible ordeal for Patience and as the time passes, the arrival of a small Penfield still further tears at her heart-strings as she sees the mother totally neglecting her child. Things go from bad to worse until Mrs. Penfield elopes with another man after discharging Patience and sending her back home penniless.

The enterprise which has just run for over an entire year at the Princess theatre, New York, and which the Marbury-Comstock company has christened Very Good Eddle, has many qualities which are not to be found cisewhere, as will be discovered when that merry little diversion is seen at the Davis theatre Friday night, Feb.

Any unique quality is of the same Any unique quality is of the same inestimable value to a theatrical production that it is to a can opener. It is a case of must—and take it from those who know, Very Good Eddie passesses charms all its own.

Refinement and musical farce have come to be almost contradictory terms. come to be almost contradictory terms.

Nobody ever thought the two simultaneously. There is, however, a degree of refinement that is possible to such entertainments, and may even be the source of pleasure to that large section of the theatre-going world which cannot live by Jack Wilson and Fanny Brice alone and refuse to be comforted by the artistle ministrations of Emma Carus or Blossom Section.

The performance of Very Good Eddie shows, it is said, that a dozen pretty girls, carefully dressed and rellowing in their facial adornment something less flambuoyant in its color scheme than a barber pole, may be quite as diverting to contemplate as three or four times the number painted in the gaudy tints of an Alaskan totem pole. Then the producers of this musical play are confident that a few capable actors with enough voice to sing their lyrics legibly may if they have the proper material, prove if they have the proper material, crove inst as entertaining as a hundred more or less.

These conditions, it is claimed, exist in the production of "Very Good Parkle Mr. Partheless"

These conditions, it is claimed, exist in the production of "Very Good Eddie. Mr. Bartholomae's intrigue is interesting; Mr. Bolton's text is witty and there is some admirable music from Jerome Kern. About the production an air of politeness has been aimed for which makes this play different fro mall similar productions now on view. Get your tickets early, Telephone orders held till 6 p. m.

The Auditorium.

Today and tomorrow the bill at the Today and tomorrow the bill at the Auditorium will, as usual be topnotchers and will interest many patrons of the motion picture world. There is to be a five-reel story written by Williard Mack and put on the screen by Williard Mack and put on the screen by William A. Brady in association with the World pictures with Alice Brady taking the leading role in A Woman Alone. Miss Brady takes the part of Nellie Waldron and beting unhappy among her uncongenial companions, Nellie realizes that life in a big city surrounded by galety and people can be equally as lonesome as life at a deserted station.

Though deserving of the greatest happiness, this young girl's life seems to be fated to be an exceptionally lonely and trying one. She craves the innocent pleasure and companions to which she has been accustomed.

As for her husband, he is perfectly contented with his narrow life and cannot understand her attitude—even resenting her longing for other compenionship.

Many men are equally thoughtless of their wives. They seem to forget that it is not the most enjoyable sensation imaginable to continually be company for oneself.

Another feature which will amuse the entire audience is the two-reel comedy, Chased Into Love, which features Hank Mann, and as implied by the title a remarkable chase takes place in which his speed is so great that he passes a bird in full flight and a racing automobile.

Saturday will be a gala day here as the management will put on four shows and the matinee performances will be especially for children when the admission will be for them but five cents. The shows will be run off at 1.30, 3.15, 7 and 8.45.

With this program a special concert program has been arranged by Glen Phillips' orchestra and all of the pictures will be closely followed by this famous orchestra.

GOVERNMENT CALLS FOR RECRUITS FOR THE ARMY.

Circular Letter Sent Asking Influence of Individuals and Societies. Washington, Feb. 15.-The war de partment today called upon individual citizens, patriotic societies and organ-tzations, many of which have offered their services since the break of relations with Germany, to help get re-cruits for the army. truits for the army.

It is the first step of the kind ever taken by the government in time of peace, army officers say, and it is regarded as a forcible illustration of the need the army feels for more men.

A circular letter sent out today is introduced with a statement that those who are interested in prepared-ness "can render no more effective ser-vice at present than by using their utmost influence to recruit the regular army to the strength authorized by law." assistance can be rendered. The first is "by encouraging the qualified men to enlist at once," and the second sug-gests that information be given to the nearest recruiting officer for the army as to the names and addresses of qualified men who are likely to enlist.

All the regiments need from 200 to 400 additional men.

The navy department has also asked assistance from citizens and organizations in recruiting work. Rear Admiral Palmer, in charge of recruiting work, said today that the navy league was conducting an active recruiting campaign and other similar bodies were being interested in the work. More than 1,400 recruits were enlisted by the navy last month and indications are that a new record will be made in February.

LIEUT. DIAZ, CUBAN REBEL, IS UNDER DETENTION Boarded Gunboat Patria to Give Warning of Insurrection.

Havana, Feb. 15.—The Cuban gunboat Patrio arrived today from Santiago de Cuba with Lieutenant Diaz, alde to General Fernandez, the rebel commander, on board. The lieutenant was immediately interviewed by President Menocal, but if he imported any information it was not made public. Lieutenant Diaz went on board the Patria in Santiago harbor to warn the Patria's commander of the insurrection, whereupon the Patria and the gunboats Baire and Yara extinguished their lights and hurriedly left the harbor. The Baire and Yara now are at Caimanero.

The secretary of the treasury declared today that $300,000 is available to pay for arms and ammunition which have been shipped from the United States and that the conservative party is certain to be victorious. "Official figures of the elections in Santa Clara province have not yet been announced. The censorship thus far has been applied only to incoming despatches.

POETRY "FOLLOW ME 'ONE."

There was no one like 'Im, 'Orse or Footat.

Nor any o' the Guns I knew:
An' because it was so, why, o' course
o' went an' died,
Which is just what the best men do. So it's kneck out your pipes an' follow An' it's finish up your swipes an' fol-Oh, 'ark to the big drum callin'.

'Is mare she neighs the 'ole day long, She paws the 'ole night through, An' she won't take 'er feed 'cause o' waitin' for 'is step, Which is just what a beast would do.

Is girl she goes with a bombardler Before er month is through;
An the banns are up in church, for she's got the beggar hooked.
Which is just what a girl would do. We fought bout a dog-last week it No more than a round or two:
lut I strook 'im cruel 'ard, an' I wish
I 'adn't now,
Which is just what a man can't do. E was all that I ad in the way of a friend.

And I've ad to find one new:
But I'd give my pay an' stripe for to get the beggar back.

Which it's just too late to do.

So it's knock out your pipes an' follow An' it's finish up your swipes an' fol-low me! Oh, 'ark to the fifes a-crawlin'! Follow me-follow me 'ome!

Take 'im away! E's gone where the best men go.
Take 'im away! An' the gun-wheels turnin' slow.
Take 'im away! There's more from the Take 'im away, with the limber an' the

For it's "Three rounds blank" an' follow me.
An' it's "Thirteen rark" an' follow me;
Oh, passin' the love o' women,
Follow me—follow me ome!

THE NEXT ROOM

Where bide they all?
Dear friends of yesterday, last year and long ago.
Who walked with us when life was all aglow
And rainbows spanned the gloom.
Not far away, we know:
They are only gone, we trow.
Into the next room.
Years near apace:

Pears near apace:

Dark days, with heavy mist now deepling into rain,
Close upon us, and we view with pain
The spectral shadows loom—
A morning gleam! and lo!
We, too, lift the latch, and go
Into the next room. -M. L. B
